

to the Recruitment Rules to the Interdisciplinary Doctoral School of Agricultural Sciences

CONDITIONS FOR THE ADMISSION OF FOREIGNERS ENABLING THEM TO UNDERTAKE STUDIES IN POLISH OR ENGLISH

1. Foreigner may undertake education conducted in Polish language if they demonstrate sufficient Polish language proficiency, i.e.:
  - 1/complete a one-year preparatory course for undrtakin stidies in Polish in dedicated units designated by the minister responsible for higher education in Poland, or
  - 2/have a certificate of proficiency in Polish language issued by the State Commission for Certification in Polish as a Foreign Language, or
  - 3/graduated from a secondary school abroad where classes were conducted in Polish language, or
  - 4/graduated from secondary school in Poland, or
  - 5/have completed higher education in Poland in a field of study taugh in Polish, or
  - 6/Recriutment Committee will confirm during the interview that their preparation and level of Polish language proficieny allow tchem to undertake studies in Polish.
2. Foreigners may undertake studies conducted in English if:
  - a) they have one of the documents confirming English proficiency, listed in Annex No. 9 to this Regulation. Disclaimer: documents confirming English proficiency also include certificates, diplomas or other documents confirming completion of a secondary school abroad in which classes were conducted in the English language, as well as a diploma of completion of higher education studies in Poland conducted in English or;
  - b) Recruitment Committee will confirm during the interview that their preparation and the level of the English language proficiency allow them to undertake studies in English.