

ADMISSION RULES
TO THE INTERDISCIPLINARY DOCTORAL SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURAL SCIENCES

Admissions to the Doctoral School shall be conducted by Admissions Committees appointed by the Directors of the participating institutions pursuant to the provisions of the Act of 20 July 2018, the Law on Higher Education and Science (Journal of Laws of 2024, item 1571, as amended), hereinafter referred to as the "Act".

1. The results of the admission process shall be public.
2. The admission quota for the Doctoral School is determined by the Director of the Doctoral School, following consultation with the Directors of the participating institutions, one month prior to the commencement of admissions.
3. In justified cases, at the request of the Director of the participating institution, supplementary admission may be conducted on an individual basis.
4. The start and end dates of the admissions process for the Doctoral School, including the deadline and venue for submitting application documents and the research topics, shall be announced on the websites of the Doctoral School and the participating institutions (admission announcement).
5. A person may be admitted to the Doctoral School if they:
  - 1) holds a Master's degree, a Master of Engineering degree or an equivalent qualification obtained in Poland or another country, subject to the rules on the recognition of qualifications obtained abroad as set out in separate regulations, or meets the conditions referred to in Article 186(2) of the Act;
  - 2) is not a doctoral student at another Doctoral School;
  - 3) has obtained a grade of at least 'good' on their degree certificate, or a grade equivalent to 'good' in the case of a degree awarded by a foreign higher education institution;
  - 4) has applied for admission to the School and all required documents within the deadline specified in the admission schedule.

1. The admission procedure takes the form of a selection process.
2. To enter the selection process, the candidate must submit a complete set of the required documents, as specified in Appendix 1 to the Admission Rules, via the admission system.
3. A candidate may apply for a maximum of two research topics.
4. Admission to the Doctoral School takes place in Polish or English.

5. Admission to the Doctoral School may take place via remote communication platforms. The admission process consists of four stages, which, together with the scoring system, are set out in Appendix 4 to these Admission Rules.
6. Upon completion of the admission procedure, the Admissions Committee prepares a ranking list of candidates specifying the number of points awarded for each stage of admission to the Doctoral School and submits it to the Director of the participating institution.
7. The ranking lists form the basis for inclusion on the list of doctoral students or for issuing a decision to refuse admission to the Doctoral School.
8. The Committee sets a minimum number of points, above which candidates for a given topic are recommended for admission to the Doctoral School.

§ 3

1. The Admissions Committee comprises:
  - 1) The Head/Director of the Doctoral School, or a person appointed by him within the participating institution, acting as Chair of the Committee.
  - 2) at least two academic staff members representing the relevant academic discipline for which admission is being conducted, each holding at least a postdoctoral degree,
  - 3) the supervisor of the research project under which the admission is being conducted (if applicable),
  - 4) a representative of the doctoral students.
2. A member of the Admission Committee shall be impartial and objective in the assessment of candidates for the Doctoral School and shall be excluded from its work in the event of circumstances that may give rise to justified concerns regarding their impartiality.
3. Other persons may attend the meeting of the Admissions Committee in an advisory capacity, upon invitation by the Chair of the Admissions Committee.
4. Decisions of the Admissions Committee are taken by a simple majority of votes in the presence of at least half of the Committee members. In the event of a tie, the Chair of the Committee has the casting vote.
5. The Admissions Committee carries out activities related to the admissions process:
  - 1) sets the date, format and venue for interviews;
  - 2) verifies the documents submitted;
  - 3) awards points for the individual stages of the admission process;
  - 4) draws up ranking lists of candidates with the best results with respect to the research topic.
6. The Chair of the Committee informs the candidate in writing whether they have met the admission requirements or of the decision to refuse admission to the Doctoral School.
7. Admission to the Doctoral School takes place by means of entry onto the list of doctoral students.
8. The admission of a foreign national to the Doctoral School takes place by way of an administrative decision.
9. Refusal of admission to the Doctoral School is issued by way of an administrative decision of the Admissions Committee. Such decisions are signed by the Director or Head of the Doctoral School.

10. A candidate has the right to request a review of the decision to refuse admission to the Doctoral School within 14 days of its delivery.
11. Upon admission to the Doctoral School, the Institute refers candidates for specialist medical examinations if, during their studies, they may be exposed to factors that are harmful or hazardous to health, in accordance with the Regulation of the Minister of Health of 26 August 2019 on medical examinations of candidates for secondary or higher education institutions and for vocational qualification courses, pupils and students of such institutions, students of vocational qualification courses and doctoral students (Journal of Laws of 2019, item 1651).

§ 4

1. The rules governing the admission of and attendance at the Doctoral School by foreign nationals are set out in Section VIII of the Act.

§ 5

2. The meetings of the Admissions Committee are recorded in individual and summary minutes. The templates for the minutes are set out in Annexes 5 and 6 to the Admissions Rules.
3. The collective minutes shall be forwarded to the Director of the Doctoral School upon completion of the admissions process.
4. A template for a decision to refuse admission to the Doctoral School is set out in Appendix 7 to the Admission Rules.
5. In matters of admission not covered by this document, decisions shall be taken by the Director of the Doctoral School in consultation with the Director of the participating institution.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED WHEN APPLYING FOR ADMISSION TO THE DOCTORAL SCHOOL

Documents required from candidates:

- a) an application for admission to the Doctoral School, together with a statement of reasons and an indication of the research topic specified in the admission notice, in accordance with the template set out in Appendix 2 to the Admission Rules;

DECISION .... /SD/....

Legal basis: Article 200(5) of the Act of 20 July 2018 on Higher Education and Science (Journal of Laws of 2024, item 1571, as amended) in conjunction with Article 104(1) and Article 107(1) and (3) of the Act of 14 June 1960 – Code of Administrative Procedure (Journal of Laws of 2023, items 775 and 803) and § 3(7) of Resolution No. ... of the Scientific Council of ... on the determination of the rules for admission to the Interdisciplinary Doctoral School of Agricultural Sciences.

The InLife Admissions Committee of the Institute of Animal Reproduction and Food Research of the Polish Academy of Sciences, having conducted the admissions procedure in accordance with the conditions and procedure for admission to the Interdisciplinary Doctoral School of Agricultural Sciences:

refuses to admit you to the Interdisciplinary Doctoral School of Agricultural Sciences for the academic year 20.../20....

Note:

This decision is final; however, pursuant to Article 127 § 3 of the Code of Administrative Procedure, a party dissatisfied with its content has the right to submit a request for reconsideration of the case.

A request for reconsideration must be submitted within 14 days of the date of receipt of the decision. The request for reconsideration shall be addressed to the InLife Admission Committee of the Institute...

During the period for lodging an application for a review of the case, a party may waive their right to lodge an application for a review of the case with the authority that issued the decision. On the date of delivery to the authority that issued the decision of a statement by the last party to the proceedings waiving the right to request a review of the case, the decision becomes final and binding.

Pursuant to Article 52(3) of the Law on Proceedings before Administrative Courts, where a party is entitled to apply to the authority that issued the decision for a review of the case, the party may lodge an appeal against that decision without exercising that right. The complaint must be lodged within thirty days of the date on which the decision was served on the complainant. A complaint to the administrative court must be lodged through the authority that issued the decision.

A court fee of PLN 200 must be paid in respect of the complaint (Section 2(1)(2) of the Regulation of the Council of Ministers of 16 December 2003 on the amount and detailed rules for the collection of court fees in proceedings before administrative courts). A party may apply for legal aid covering partial or total exemption from court costs and the appointment of a solicitor, legal adviser, tax adviser or patent attorney. An application for legal aid shall contain a statement by the party providing accurate details of their financial circumstances and income, and if the application is submitted by a natural person, it shall also contain accurate details of their family circumstances and a statement by the party that they are not employed by or in any other legal relationship with a solicitor, legal adviser, tax adviser or patent attorney. The statement is made under penalty of criminal liability for making a false statement. The person making the statement is obliged to include the following clause therein: "I am aware of the criminal liability for making a false statement." This clause replaces the court's instruction regarding criminal liability for making a false statement. The application shall be submitted on an official form in accordance with the prescribed template.
